

58. (a) We orient \hat{i} eastward, \hat{j} northward, and \hat{k} upward. The displacement in meters is consequently $1000\hat{i} + 2000\hat{j} - 500\hat{k}$.
- (b) The net displacement is zero since his final position matches his initial position.